

BELOVED LADY MASTER LETO'S DISCOURSE

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

JUNE 7, 1944

EVENING

ELOVED ONES, in coming to you tonight and bringing the release of the added Assistance which must come to the Earth, I convey to you the Love and the Blessings of the Ascended Host Who minister to Earth and Who love and bless you, Who love you very dearly for your continued service and loyalty to this Light.

You shall, ere long, have cause to see more and more what your determined stand means to this Light, and what this Light means to America and through America to the Earth.

In coming to you tonight, I wish to add My Radiance or Power of My Love — the Activity of the Sacred Fire which it is My Privilege to direct and the Protection and the Healing Power, which I so much want to anchor within and around you for your greater happiness and your greater ability to assist others.

In the Great Octaves of Light where We dwell and where the Mighty Action of Life's Tremendous Cosmic Power goes on — from Those Great Octaves, there is pouring constantly to every one who will make the slightest effort and hold to the Constructive Way of Life. Today there is pouring Tremendous Cosmic Assistance, such as mankind has never received before. As the greater intended destruction tries to focus into the outer activities of mankind, there comes always from the Octaves of Light an added release of the Fire Element to be the Great Power that can be released to stop the expanding of the destruction that is intended against America's people.

In the plans of the sinister force to wreck as much as possible on this Earth dwells not only the germ of their own destruction, but the complete Pressure and the Force they must meet here, as well as in the Compound. Those who have loosed against Life, against the mankind of this Earth, the frightful destruction that is going on in the rest of the world, are nearing the end of their rope; because We have already entered into the Cycle wherein that which is constructive becomes stronger, brighter and more of authority in the outer world of mankind, and that which is destructive is being hourly bound more and more back into its cause, until it is completely removed from the Earth.

In order to offset the aftermath of much of it that would automatically be acting in America or against her people, the Great Divine Director, Myself and Others Who will join a little later — there is being drawn an Action of the Fire Element for both healing and protection to those who will determinedly stand for that which is Right and be no part of that which longer seeks to deprave mankind or destroy them or hold them in limitation.

I want to say something very encouraging to you. As you give more and more conscious recognition, acceptance and call to the various Activities of the Fire Element — the Sacred Fire — you will become more and more invincible and less touched by destructive conditions around you. Because, as your attention rests upon the Sacred Fire, you naturally draw an Intensification of that Flame — the Action of the Flame. I mean, both the Unfed Flame, the Violet Flame and any other particular Action of the Sacred Fire — you draw that in and around your Tube of Light, as well as into your affairs and around your body.

You cannot place your attention upon the Master Element of the Universe, the Master Presence, without Its Power and Its Presence focusing around you; but I ask you to observe from tonight on, the Outpouring which will be yours as you give conscious devotion to the Cosmic Expansion of the Unfed Flame as of a Thousand Suns. That Unfed Flame is the Balance, remember, of Love, Wisdom and Power; and may I go into that tonight deeply enough with you to make you see the necessity of holding your feelings charged with those Mighty Qualities, so wherever you move you become the Balancing Power of the Sacred Fire. And what is that Balance?

When mankind has qualified substance with destructive qualities and then that substance is drawn into the Flame, the destructive qualities are consumed and the energy and substance returned back into the Universal or unto the Ascended Masters for Their Conscious Direction, depending upon your call. In that way you are balancing back to Life — returning the energy and the substance purified, if Life and the Great Beings Who direct it are to use it over again to produce and create Perfection instead of that which was of human discord.

This is the Great Balancing, Purifying Activity of the Sacred Fire; both with the Use of the Violet Consuming Flame and the Unfed Flame, may I enter deeply into your feelings tonight and release you, if you will let Me, from some habits and desires that are acting in many of you and you are not aware of it.

In the Perfect Balance of Love, Wisdom and Power, remember all energy and all substance are handled with kindness. Your hands, My Beloved Ones, were created by your Higher Mental Bodies and given as part of your physical structure for you to use to bless Life. So in handling the substance and the energy of the things of this world, will you please value your privilege of charging your hands with the Cosmic Expansion of the Unfed Flame of a Thousand Suns which blesses every bit of substance, blesses all energy and blesses everything you touch with Kindness, Purity, Perfection and Joy? Now I mean even in the handling of inanimate things.

Do you know many of the people in India who really understand the Law of Blessing never even throw away old worn-out garments without a Blessing and the thanking of them for the service they have rendered the individual? When they throw away their shoes or place them in the fire, they give them a Blessing and thank Life for the service they have rendered.

Your Beloved Saint Germain, as well as Others, have told you that there is no substitute for kindness; and did it ever occur to you how necessary it is to be kind to the things you use? If you are kind to them and you handle them lovingly with Blessing, they will wear much longer and they will be in better condition. They will stay cleaner and, therefore, they will bless you. They will pour back a Blessing to you.

“I AM” drawing your attention to this tonight, so the “I AM” Students may establish a certain standard of conduct which shall become outstanding to the people of the outer world, if you will accept this and govern yourselves accordingly. May I say to you, since you are using Beloved Saint Germain's Name and the Name "I AM" which is the most Honorable Name in creation; since you call yourselves "I AM" Students, since you call yourselves the "Family of Saint Germain," it would be obedience to the Law if you would all become very careful of the way you handle things as you hand them to each other, as you pick them up and move them from here to there.

If you would learn to love and handle with kindness and Blessing every bit of substance which came into your direction, My Precious Ones, you have no idea what the conditions of your clothing would become like, what the condition of your homes, your business, your finances and the atmosphere about you, and the love that the rest of the world would pour to you.

Do you know what would happen if you trained yourselves to do this? Do you know every one of the Beings of the Four Elements would love to come to you and give you Their Greatest Blessings. They would automatically flood to you, because They would know when they came near you, when they came into your atmosphere, you would bless Them and make Them happier. You would have the love of all Life and you would have the Blessing of all things, if you blessed all things.

Now, "I AM" going to take up the subject of money. There has been a consciousness charged into all money, a great deal of which has been the feeling of mankind's selfishness. Selfishness is disorder and dirt, and that is why money accumulates dirt by the handling of many people. It passes through and accepts the radiation of those who use it. Now "I AM" going to ask you as "I AM" Students to reverse that. Will you please take the curse off all money? You can! You are the Authority from Life of every bit of substance that comes into your world. You can qualify it to become a Miracle of Blessing, Purity, Happiness and Perfection, or you can accept it as one of the things of the outer world, throw it around and have exactly the same recoil into your own feeling world of what the "throw around" feeling produces. You throw things around and things will throw you around. They have been doing it considerably through your problems.

Now "I AM" going to ask you to watch. Accept this opportunity! Take it and learn to bless everything. May I say something tonight about your hands that I think has not been given before? Since the hands are given you to reach up into the Infinite and draw forth the Powers, the Substance and the Energy of Life to bless all in the outer world, there is a certain Action of the Flame from your Heart that goes out through your hands. Therefore, as soon as you are through with your work, if you are in mechanical work or something in the outer world wherein you are handling substance of dirt, paints or oil or whatever it is that makes the skin perhaps dirty while you are dealing with that substance, if you will remember that the Flame from your Heart has poured Its Love to bless that substance until all of its qualities are Self-Luminous and as clean and pure as the rainbow; then your hands will keep in much better condition. You will allow the Power of the Flame of Love from your Hearts to go into that substance and help purify it and put it in its own right channel of service; and in that way bless the Beings of the Four Elements. If you will train yourselves to remember the Blessing of the Flame from your Heart which flows through your hands, you shall have Miraculous Healing Power! You shall have the Blessing and the assistance of the Sacred Fire to play like the Angelic Host, to manipulate the things of this world with Perfection and Happiness, and you will be entrusted with the Greater Gifts of Life from Our Octave as the Giver of those Blessings to others of mankind who have them not at this time.

Your hands are Mighty, Mighty Cups of Blessing. The hands should never be used except in blessing, and My Dear Ones, when you shake hands, when you pass things to each other, you could make every motion of your hands the Cosmic Expansion of the Unfed Flame to consume discord and produce Perfection wherever you move. Why am I stressing this tonight? Because My Dear Ones, many of you have been calling for Precipitation; and Precipitation would have to come through the Use of the Sacred Fire through your hands. May I say under the Law of the Cosmic Cycle – this Cycle you have entered, which becomes the Golden Age to the Earth – those Powers are not going to be released unless they be handled with Love and Kindness. That is the Law.

The more the discord and the hate increase in the outer world through war, the more must you who stand for this Light draw forth greater Love, Blessing, Control and Kindness, and give greater obedience to the Law so the Great Cosmic Law may use you more powerfully to offset the destruction that others are creating, who do not know any better as yet.

I would deeply appreciate, as would your Beloved Saint Germain, the Blessed Godfre and Others of the Ascended Host, if the Student Body would pay some very definite attention to their personal habits of cleanliness of both mind and body, of clothing, of homes, of your business, of your atmosphere and particularly your courtesy and kindness to each other. After all, your Blessed Saint Germain is Head of the Ceremonial Ray and the Ceremony of your Precious Saint Germain is one of graciousness and loving kindness and Blessings to all that is.

Could you imagine Beloved Saint Germain or Jesus or your Beloved Godfre, could you imagine any of Them throwing things to anyone else, with a sense of irritation or dislike? No, you cannot have the Miraculous Healing Power that acts on the moment; you cannot have Perfection in your musical application; you cannot have the Power of Precipitation, unless you love all substance and all energy with the Purity and the Kindness and the Blessing as the Ascended Ones do. Because the Law of the Cycle will not permit again the Use of those Divine, Magnificent Powers of Life to be degraded to the place where they have to be withheld. They will stay withheld until you fulfill the Law.

You can observe what is in the feeling world of individuals oftentimes when you see them throw things away, when there is a sense of irritation or disgust and hate goes out, because it is hate when you treat substance like that. Suppose it is what you call dirt that you do not want in your world. Suppose it is! It is some of Life's Substance where it does not belong. It is just out of place, but if you add to the discord that has already been imposed upon it, your irritation or your hate or your dislike – and remember Beloved Saint Germain said, “even mild dislike is a form of hate.” If you add that to whatever is already in the outer world, why would you expect Life to give you the Powers of Precipitation?

Those Powers would have to act through your feeling world and if the Great Ones or your "Presence" released Its clean, Pure Substance, and this other feeling is in your world, you would impose it upon the thing you want to precipitate, and it would not come forth beautiful as you desire. It would have to come through you. Therefore, it would have to come through the qualities of the feeling in you.

"I AM" explaining this tonight because many of you are so sincere and are working with determination to be worthy and strong enough to use these Greater Powers for the blessing of your fellow man, but they act under Law and particularly the Healing Power. Precious Ones, do you really realize every Power which you want from the Ascended Masters' Octave can be given to you the next instant the moment there is no more unkind feeling or impurity in your feeling world? That is the only thing that has ever shut out these Magnificent Powers of Life which We use every day as easily as you breathe.

Were your feelings always harmonious and pure and your attention held to the "Presence" and you obedient, when your Heart suddenly wanted to heal or remove from someone else an accumulation of distress and you had This Momentum of Purity, Love, Kindness and Obedience, you could say to your "Presence": " 'Mighty I AM Presence,' blaze through me the Flame of Love from Your Heart and let me release Life from this accumulation!" Your "Presence," on the instant, could flash a Flame through your hand and the substance and limitation from the other person's body be dissolved in front of your eyes on the moment; and the only things that delay this, My Dear Ones, are the habits of irritation, dislike and rebellious feeling to some of Life's substance or energy.

Will you please, from now on, look upon those or the substance you see that is not producing beauty, Perfection of Self-Lumination — will you look upon it as imprisoned Life? — Life which was given in Love, and imprisoned in discord because of ignorance. You will find great Wisdom coming into your outer use when you correct your feelings against substance and energy which you call inanimate things.

Do you ever think of blessing the soap and the water after you have washed your hands and imposed your dirt on it – your radiation or accumulation of other substance? When you wash your hands, do you thank the substance of the soap and water for giving you a greater harmony and cleansing?

Now follow Me closely, because part of this is given in “Unveiled Mysteries” and “The Magic Presence.” The Mighty Saint Germain said to this Blessed Messenger: “That which appears to you as the Point of Light in the electron is its brain and therein abides the intelligence which enables energy to obey mankind’s direction, but it is energy and substance that can be molded into form.” So if you really understood the Great Law of Life and Its Manifestations in the Universe, you would realize that every electron is a tiny Being of Intelligence and Love, emitting Light which gives you activity for manifestation.

So, if I can remove from your feeling world this habit or these habits of irritation or discord or lack of consideration for that which is Life’s Gift to you, if I can remove this from your feeling world, you will have the Use of many Powers of Life which will delight you greatly and that will do away with many of your limitations. Because all limitations, My Blessed Ones, are some form of criticism and condemnation of Life; and Life will just gently push it back to you; sometimes not so gently, because sometimes your problems are, may I say, very rude. They are not gentle at all when they come back and force back into your world their qualities and their accumulation.

“I AM” taking this up because some of the blessed Students, especially the “I AM” Ascended Master Youth have, of their own volition, offered to become a channel for Beloved Saint Germain’s Courtesy. I believe the Chicago “I AM” Ascended Master Youth Group have called their group – “Saint Germain’s Courtesy Group” and they try to acquire those habits and ways and means of conduct which would most nearly represent Beloved Saint Germain. Beloved Saint Germain would never do anything except be courteous when He is dealing with the Substance and Energy of His Own Life, because Life is One everywhere. Every Ascended Master and Cosmic Being considers all Life and all Substance an extension of His Own World – His Own Being; and if you would form the habit of, when you see substance that is qualified with discord, debris or what you call dirt, if you will just form the habit of saying: “Oh, ‘Mighty I AM Presence’ and the Ascended Ones, blaze the Blue Flame or the Violet Flame through that and purify it. Consume those qualities and release that substance as Self-Luminous, Intelligent Substance of Life and bless everything with Perfection!”

If you just make the Call and go on your way, you will be amazed, My Precious Ones, as you set those little Beings free from those qualities, how They will love you; and you, shall I say, will have a reputation among Them for blessing Them and They will seek you; and the fine things, the lovely things of beauty – clean, pure things of the physical world will seek you, because They will just love like a child coming near you and be lifted by your feelings; because there is no selfishness in you. There would be no selfishness to hold that.

In your love to all substance, or rather your Call to the Sacred Fire to purify it and remove all pressure of mankind’s impurity and discord upon it, when you are ready to, just through daily habit, release that, you would in a short time gain a momentum of that feeling in the atmosphere around you. And do you know how that is seen at the Inner Level? It is seen as a Light, a soft pink Light with the outer Radiance of gold. The moment Those Beings would see that Light, They would flood to you, because They would love to be in your Blessing.

If you will build a momentum of This and cultivate these personal habits of courtesy, kindness and blessing to all substance and all energy, My Dear Ones, in a short time the loveliest things this world has to offer would automatically come into your world for your use and your direction. There are so many of mankind doing the other thing, don’t you think it would be lovely to cultivate these finer qualities within yourselves which are like the Ascended Masters, so when people come to you, you will be so fine they will love to stay, and they will listen and be receptive, and you will show them the Right Way to live Life. Then they will go out and repeat your words and begin to make effort themselves, and others will hear them, and that will go on and on like a Great Circle of vibration. When you throw a stone in the water – waves go clear out to the edge of the pool and then come back to the center to bless you. The more you can do that to the Substance of the Universe, the more It will flow back to you. It is the Supreme Way of Perfection.

Do you know what Healing Power you could draw to assist others if always this feeling was poured out from you? You could say to the Beloved Helios: “Mighty Helios, blaze the Flame from Your Heart through my hands, and just in a moment, make all substance that I touch pure.” These Powers are within Life, but They have so long been withheld from mankind, because of unkindness, that We wait and wait and wait through the centuries, hoping one or more or many may come to understand This Law and will so take themselves in hand that they will give the obedience which will enable Us to come and show them the magnificent Powers which can act instantly through an unascended being, when those feelings have been dissolved from your world and those habits just are no more.

You can do it, My Dear Ones, if you want to. You do this other because you want to. If you want irritation and you choose to live with irritation and you throw something across the room and do not care much about it and make it feel disliked, you do that because you want to. If you do that, you can do the opposite. You are a being of free will and Life will always hold you responsible for the way you use your free will. You have never yet escaped that and you never will; but I tell you the Happiness and the greater Power of which you will be the custodian and the things which will come to bless you and which will give you the freedom to give to others as the Sun gives to you, will come only on the Flame of Love, Kindness, Blessing and Purity which release all substance from the discord and impurity mankind has already imposed upon it.

“I AM” stressing this tonight because I feel if you really know and understand This Law, you will – at least most of you – will take yourselves in hand and begin to shut off that which still is a limitation or a problem in your world. “I AM” trying to free you from your problems and We must have this Blessing to Life if the problems are to be dissolved. But when all your problems are dissolved it does not mean you will be inactive, not at all. You will be a thousand times more active. You will go on with magnificent creative activities, but with no sense of struggle and never a disappointment nor a failure.

Therefore, in calling forth Healing Power to be focused into your Music Temples or into your Healing Temples which are to come forth, the fundamental requisite – especially in those for giving the Decrees to draw the Healing Power into those Temples and to give the Blessing and cut away the substance from those who need to be healed – those who have already purified their own feeling world, when they make those Calls, will be answered with Cosmic Power which will astound you. This will bless as mankind has never been blessed, through Music and your Decrees and the Light or the Flame of Love from your Heart. This is what Beloved Jesus referred to when He said: “ ‘I AM’ the Presence of that Pure Love which transcends every human concept.” In other words, He stands above all that is of the human, “and opens the door to me to the Light within Its Heart,” wherein impurity does not abide.

If you want to make these bodies Self-Luminous, if you wish to illumine the atmosphere about you, then your Love and your kindness must become so great that you bless all energy and all Life with luminosity, all substance with luminosity; and a thing cannot be luminous unless Love is there. Where irritation is, Love is not; and where limitation is, Love is not.

So if you will understand This, “I AM” sure you will move forward very, very joyously, surprised at the increase of your own Powers, the increase of the Illumination to your own mind and the increase of supply which will flood in your direction. May I say something else about this kindness and the feeling that you can release? Many times when you are dealing with vicious forces you suddenly disarm them when you are very kind. You so surprise them with that quality which is not in their own world that they feel stunned for a moment and almost embarrassed to do the vicious thing which they had contemplated, and you, many times, check unbridled impulses of viciousness by a sudden contact or a sudden outpouring of that great power of kindness.

As you increase consciously your Call for this kindness to go forth, and you ask at the same time that it carry automatic Invincible Protection and terrific Cosmic Pressure around you, then if suddenly you contact that which is wholly vicious it will be just like a sudden shock, and in that moment of shock it will give your "Presence" and the "Presence" of the other individual an opportunity to take command, and it will give you very much greater Protection.

So This has many Blessings. This which "I AM" revealing to you tonight is the Inner Accumulation of Power which, when drawn to a certain point, is Invincible Protection and can at any moment be made Self-Luminous by the "Presence" or an Assisting Master. This is of very paramount importance if you will practice It.

May I make some other things clear to you tonight? As "I AM" Students you must some day accumulate all wisdom. I mean by that, keep the outer self harmonious enough so that at any moment the "Presence" may release whatever Wisdom is required to handle any particular condition that you might meet. In regard to this, "I AM" going to say something that may sound severe; and it will probably cause some readjustment in many families, but every human being should have some place where you can get out of every one else's atmosphere, be alone and quiet for awhile until you can call to your "Presence" to take out of your mental and feeling world and out of your body and atmosphere, everything that is not from your "Presence," so you may become still enough to let the "Presence" give you Its Own Ideas and pour Its Feelings through you.

As you move in the outer world, you are constantly accepting this person and that other person's conversation, their thoughts, their feelings, the vibration of their spoken word. All of that energy is just surging in and around you, and you have to absorb it. If you are in the room where several people are talking all the time, you are all breathing the same air in; therefore, you are breathing in the rates of vibration of your conversation and your spoken words that do not describe Perfection. Well then, you are breathing those rates of vibration right back into your bodies and you keep breathing in each other's vibrations so much that your dear, Blessed "Presence" is the last thing in the world Who gets a chance to really tell you what is the best thing for you to do.

If every one were to have a private room, and I trust the day will come, not too far distant on this Earth, when every full-grown human being will have a private room and a private bath, insulated if need be, where that one can go and call to the "Presence" and do what is necessary to sweep out the thoughts and feelings and accumulations of other Life Streams – things that do not belong to your world at all, and let yourself become quiet and purified to the point where the "Presence" can give you Its thoughts, Its Wisdom, Its Love and Its Light; and you will know without question what your "Presence" wants you to do and you will have the great joy of never again making human mistakes.

I think it is worth a great deal to come to the point where you do not make any more mistakes, and yet move in this world and give assistance to others. Oh, that is possible! If it is possible to make mistakes in this world, then it is possible not to make them, for you are still Life, so don't let anything suggest itself to you – there is so much discord in this world that nobody can live here and not make mistakes, because they can. If the Ascended Masters were to walk through this world, do you think They would make mistakes? Certainly not! They are Life. If Their Life can live here and not make mistakes, your Life can live here and not make mistakes, if you so decree it. No one need make any more mistakes unless they want to.

If your Love, Determination and Sincerity to your "Presence" is so great that you remember to keep saying to your "Presence": "Don't let me make any mistakes! See I do only what you want me to do to fulfill your Divine Plan!" You make that Call to Life and Life will answer you. It just takes your persistent Decree of that which you know is Perfection.

I marvel sometimes that things do not happen worse than they do when you realize how many people, as one of the other Blessed Ones said, "are piled up on top of each other in these big cities, until they never get out of each other's mental and feeling world long enough to ever get in complete contact with their own 'Presence' – the mental and feeling world of their own 'Presence.' ” So it is not any wonder they do some of the things they do. They are just so packed together, God cannot get in between.

Now, I think I have a right to say this to you Precious Ones here, because you live in a city where there is plenty of space. You have nice clean atmosphere and beautiful sky overhead; and may I say, Beloved Neptune's Blessings enfold you from Above and help keep things pure. I think He did a very famous job this afternoon. I would not call that a “job,” excuse Me. I think He gave you a Mighty Blessing. A hailstorm is sometimes a much greater blessing than you know. It many times dissolves things that are accumulating at the Inner Level which would become a plague.

Do you know in twenty-four hours a hailstorm can completely annihilate a plague of locusts so they cannot appear in that locality that season? So I tell you, you are being enfolded in a Blessing by these Great Beings of Life's Perfection far beyond what you yet understand. Life is just pouring you Its Lavish Blessings on every hand, Precious Ones, and not once does mankind stop and say: “Oh, I love you Life for giving this! I love you for enabling us to have this.” Just send that spontaneous outpouring in a great, calm, poised manner, just a nice, joyous, courteous recognition to Life for all It has been giving you – Life your “Mighty I AM Presence!”

You know you are considered quite impolite in the outer physical world if you do not thank people for something nice they do for you. You are considered more or less of a boor and ungrateful; but, Oh dear, the centuries mankind has used the lovely things of this Universe and never once did it occur to them to be grateful and really thank Life for that lovely, wonderful blessing.

Tonight, may I ask you also to please govern your emotional impulses still more? Do not allow your feeling world to get fluttery. Sometimes if you are very intense in your devotion you get all keyed up, just like that. Now don't do that, Precious Ones; you are not controlling the energy. You are letting an impulse control you. No Ascended Master ever does anything in an excited tension. The Master is at all times poised, kind and self-controlled. That is the reason Beloved Saint Germain gave you the Decree to enable you to move forward through all experiences, serene and in Masterful control. It must come.

You have been under This Radiation a long time now, Precious Ones, and you have come to the point where you must take command of all those fluttery feelings and say: "No you don't! I am the poised, Masterful control of all the energy and substance that touches my world! Now be still and at peace." You would be amazed at the extra strength in your bodies that would come when you take the Master Command and bring everything into Divine Order with that great, loving authority which blesses and holds all in Perfect Balance.

I think Beloved Saint Germain is going to be just a little more severe in the future — I mean a little more firm about the Student Body in the personal conduct of those who will not control the emotions, because any fluttery, fanatical thing at this time is a dangerous thing from the outer world contacts, because the outer world is in that condition. The majority of the people are under the strain and stress of the frightful strain and discord of the outer world; and the Students — the greater the Light becomes in, through and around them and the Greater Love the Ascended Masters pour to them and the Greater Powers which are delegated to them for use — automatically, they should command greater self-control, obedience and poise.

May I say to you, since That is one of My main Characteristics — poise and relaxation, masterful poise will bring you that which nothing else will bring. It will do much for your health. It will command and compel respect from the outer world and it will shut the door to no end of criticism. May I say something else? You might think "I AM" just given to rooting out everything tonight, but if so, it is because I want to free your worlds from that which is still your struggle.

May I say to you, when you have decided on a thing, when your "Presence" has given you an idea which is constructive and it does not cause distress to others — I mean the going ahead with it is in Divine Order, Balance, Freedom and Happiness, when you put your hand to the plow, go to the end of the furrow and finish what you begin. Finish it as quickly, as harmoniously and as wisely as possible. Do not allow a dozen things to get started and none of them ever finished, for that is failure. You will never make a success financially until you break that habit.

If your finance does not come as quickly as you require it, look around in your world and see what you have left unfinished, and make up your mind when something is right to be done, then do it. Complete it and hand it to Life as a Blessing to render a service and hold balance and Perfection. These habits are much more deeply rooted in the whole human race than they know. That is what produces much of the chaos and the failure of the outer world. When you begin a thing, stay right with it until you complete it. Then those destructive forces know that when you have set your goal they cannot sidetrack you. You go on your way like the wind and you accomplish one thing after another, faster and faster and more powerfully until you feel your Mastery and you finally move into almost instantaneous action.

Beloved Saint Germain will deeply appreciate any effort along this line of self-correction, because He has marvelous things waiting which He wants to bring into the use of the Student Body, and through them, give to America and the World. However, He cannot do it and will not, until you are strong enough to guard them after He gives them to you. Because in manufacturing things of the outer world, if you once get the project right in the beginning, then you must hold the protection of it until you produce it and give it your Blessing to go forth and help raise mankind into cleaner ways of living and more harmonious, beautiful ways of building your cities and carrying on the activity of Life in your daily routine in the world. This will bring great joy and upliftment to all Life that contacts you.

You are dealing with Life on every hand, waking or sleeping, embodied or disembodied. You are dealing with Life everywhere, and the individual who will make his or her decision to be the Blessing of Life's Perfection to all the rest of Life in the greatest Joy, Power and Self-Control of the Ascended Masters, will move forward in one Victory after another in conditions which are harmonious, and That will give you a freedom to enjoy and use the wonderful wealth of this World in a way that everything you do will be a Blessing to some part of Life. When you have fulfilled that requirement of the Law all Life will bless you, will seek you out and give you Its choicest gifts and each one will be more magnificent than the one before.

"I AM" trying to clear your world tonight, because in some of the outer world's conditions of readjustment after the war ceases, I do not want you to have to swing into the aftermath of depression or whatever is to follow and you have to go through the conditions that many of the others of the outer world will go through, because they do not know how to protect themselves. But if you will do these things now and gain your momentum, you will have the poise; you will have the control; you will have your momentum of Blessing to Life, to all energy, to all substance, to all Life. When the outer world is in chaos, then the Forces of Nature can give to you and bring you what the rest of the world will not have.

So, I think it is quite worth while to have sat under My correction tonight, if you want to put it that way. Like children in school who missed their arithmetic lessons and who had to stay after school to have them explained, later on you never forgot the problems you made the mistake on and had to stay to correct. Those always stay clear in the memory. So it is in these experiences. If I can clear these things away from you now in the mental and feeling world, it will give you a chance to gain a momentum of poise, obedience and self-control which will be a great wall around you of protection and power which, when outer world conditions are causing distress to others, you need not be touched by that distress. Rather you can become a Mountain of Light and Power and Blessing to those who are in distress and release them from it. You then become the Protecting Presence and the Assisting Presence to many, many, many other Streams of Life.

I would like to see this Messenger's Decree She gives at the beginning and end of each class, that each of you be made the custodians of the Wealth of the World to use it for the Awakening and Purification, the Illumination and the Freedom of all Life. I want you to become That quickly, because in rendering the service to free the rest of Life from that which has been imposed upon It of discord, then automatically, you yourselves are free. It must be so.

Do you know what would dissolve, perhaps more than any other one thing, outside of the Knowledge of the "I AM" and your Calls to the "Presence" and the Violet Flame, do you know what would dissolve family discord quickly? The same kindness and courtesy to each other that you feel obligated to extend to someone socially for whom you have respect. If you compelled yourselves to be as considerate, as courteous, as unselfish and as kind to everyone in your household as you are to people, sometimes upon whom you wish to make an impression, "I AM" quite sure, family rows would be a thing of the dark ages. I would love to see that come about, wouldn't you? Because it is so unnecessary after all.

All distress could cease so easily if mankind just really would let go of it. There is a peculiar quality in the human feelings that likes to mull over anything in the mind to justify the feeling that went out — any kind of an argument that just justifies something you have done that you know very well all the time you should not have done. That is a very subtle feeling. You like to justify what you have said or what you have done or have not done. You like to always make yourselves feel you are always right and the other person is always wrong; and that feeling should go down in every one. There is only one thing in the Universe which is always right and that is your "Presence." It is the Light which gets through occasionally and It is the only thing in anybody that is ever right.

May I say something else? Now this is really going to be hard on you. I trust just enough to awaken you — Oh, not hurt, for there is no hurt in it — but remember the criterion of a great person, a great mind and a great Light in any one is determined by the conduct and actions of that one who never makes another feel uncomfortable. That never, if you are in a position of authority over others, the great person never, never makes anyone feel underneath them — never. The person who exercises the feeling of domination to make someone feel they are an underling, My Dear Ones, that is degrading, very degrading. A great person always puts every one at ease and makes them feel that they are co-workers and not servants.

No part of Life likes to feel the whip, whether it be in the intellect, in the feelings or in the spoken word. The Ascended Masters, when They come, will put you perfectly at ease; because They will make you feel you are just one of Their Family, because They love you. Even the Great Divine Director Whose Magnificent Cosmic Power is so tremendous, while the Power around Him almost makes one gasp with Its magnitude, and the same is true of Beloved Sanat Kumara, yet, when He smiles, you feel just like a child and could crawl into His Arms and just hug Him. He might even let you; and after all, some day you want to be as Great as He is. Some day you want to use these Powers that Beloved Saint Germain, Jesus and the Great Ones direct! Some day you should have these Powers! You must bring Them forth sometime to help others. So, to be truly great is to be truly kind and never once forget it.

If someone has made a mistake just say: “Well, it is just a mistake. The world has been full of them for centuries and one more or less is not so important, but let us not make any more. Let us shut the door now and do this in some other way, so you won’t have any more mistakes.” But to make someone feel hurt or inferior because of a mistake — Oh, Precious Ones, let us tonight — “I AM” pouring My Love to dissolve that feeling in every one under this Radiation, because that is one of the first qualities that make a dictator, and no one wants to become that really to Life anywhere.

There is a great gamut between a dictator and a director, as there is between the Compound and the Great Central Sun. One can be a director of many Infinite Activities, but no Divine Being ever wants to be a dictator. That is wholly human. That which makes any part of Life uncomfortable is not Divine.

Were I not able to pour to you My Love when “I AM” explaining these Inner Actions of Life’s feeling world, I could not help you, because it would arouse resentment in you, if you were not ready to let go of them. So in order to help set mankind free, We must pour such a Great Love, and I mean the same Love to which Beloved Jesus referred – that Pure Love that Transcends – always stands above – every human quality and just like the Sun, keeps blazing and dissolving and harmonizing a condition until it is right, until it is perfect, until the Divine Plan is fulfilled.

There is no substitute for kindness; and there is no power greater than that Pure Love which stands above every human concept. You may have tonight all you want. You may have your worlds flooded with this Love, with the Cosmic Light, with the Great Forgiving Kindness. You may have Oceans of It flooding forth through your world, pouring Its Cosmic Flame, just surging through you all the time, if you will; and certain things can never come until that Love rules o'er all Supreme.

When the Love that transcends every human concept reigns in and around your own feeling world, many times you could stand in conditions that were simply terrifying to any one else, and yet, you would scarcely be conscious of anything but that you abide in that Flame of Love which is the Master Authority throughout Infinity. Nothing can ever take Its place and nothing ever will, and I want you to feel it tonight.

I want you to anchor this substance and This Flame into everything in your beings and worlds and all you hold near and dear, for the Seven Mighty Kumaras are pouring a more intense Action of the Cosmic Unfed Flame and that Focus is nearing the Earth to give you greater Protection and greater Assistance in just This which “I AM” speaking of tonight; so this greater Flame of Love may hold the balance of Earth against the pressure of that which is planned in this invasion.

So I ask you tonight, to let go of those feelings for the safety of your Nation and the Freedom of a world almost sunk in darkness. Nothing of human feelings is important, My Precious Ones, against the need for the protection of your Land and your loved ones to hold the balance against that which wants to saturate the Earth with human blood. Please tonight, listen to Me! Please listen to Me tonight! Please, and let this Love take Its Dominion and hold Its Great, Poised Authority in you and LET the Seven Mighty Kumaras use you like a Mighty Niagara Falls of that Flame to flood over your Land and flood around your loved ones the Cosmic Power of Their Love and Protection.

I stand with you! I will do everything you will let Me do, because if you will hold This, if you will be Their Outpouring of the Cosmic Expansion of that Unfed Flame you will not be subject to these epidemics and the aftermath of what the outer world must experience, unless they accept This Light. You who have accepted It have, under the Cosmic Law, enabled the door to be opened for this Assistance to be given. Because of your love, your loyalty and your constant service, We come to release you from these things that sometimes you have not known were acting. Now that it has been illumined to you tonight, the rest of it rests with you to compel those human feelings to go into the Violet Flame; and the Cosmic Flame of Cosmic Love take their places and hold the balance now in America against that which is unmentionable.

A great person never makes any one feel ill at ease, but just the opposite, because the great person lives for the Perfection, the Happiness and the Freedom of all and the human self has been placed aside and compelled to be obedient to the Greatness of the Higher Mental Body and Its Light which makes all things great. Won't you tonight, no matter how humble your channel of service, no matter where you move in the outer world or what you do, you can always from tonight be great with the greatness of your Higher Mental Body and by its Light BE that Cosmic Love that transcends every human concept and gives kindness and peace and healing to all.

My Dear Ones, your voices will be like Angels when you do This. Your bodies will know no exhaustion or tension. Your very radiation of happiness will heal wherever you move and the world will love you and want this Light; and it will make it possible, when you have this calm, poised, loving, obedient control. It will make it possible for Me to come to many of you and open the door to go on those journeys and know the Inner and outer action of your Life's experiences and have these Powers which enable you to help Life expand Its Perfection more powerfully.

In the Cosmic Love from the Great Beings Who have watched you in your expansion of This Light, in Their Love comes Their Protection, and as you call it forth consciously with more Power, you will all feel greater ease in everything you do. It will be easy to bring Perfection where now there seems resistance and struggle.

Will you remember one more thing? Anyone who ever does anything for you, where it is done with the right motive and all, is giving you their Life. A group of people as they are doing something for someone else when they use their energy, they give their Life for that other person's use and direction, and you should never forget that for a moment, for if you will feel your obligation in accepting their energy and their service, if you will feel they are giving their Life to you, for they do, to help you do what you want to do, then you must know that you must give back to Life and to them a similar balance. Oh, not necessarily money — sometimes money or whatever is required as a balance, can never be given for what Life gives. You might give them some of the nice things they need in their worlds, but in addition to that, you owe that Life Stream a Blessing of Love, Kindness and the Call for Protection, if you have accepted the energy of that individual in something you wished to accomplish. You owe that blessing back to Life. It does not make any difference whether the people are "I AM" Students or not, that has nothing to do with it. You are dealing with Life and if Life offers you a certain amount of energy, you owe that back to Life.

If you will keep the balance, then all the Powers of Our Octave can, like coming through an Open Door, begin to flood into your use, and you will do this and that in the most wonderful way and all the things you have longed to do you will find yourselves doing in the greatest joy; the joy that makes them permanent and holds them protected from any intrusion by the discord of the outer world. It is well worth every effort you make to come to this poised self-control and the great kindness and blessing of all Life, all substance and all energy with that Cosmic Love, and that Cosmic Flame that transcends every human concept and blazes forever with all the Light that is within Its Heart.

Nothing takes the place of Blessing! Nothing takes the place of Light and these are the Gifts of Life and the privilege that is yours to use. It is the Great Open Door to the great opportunity to keep expanding the Light in the midst of the shadows of the outer world, until the Light reigns o'er all and shadows are no more.

May the Healing Radiance of the Love I want you to feel which is My Freedom to you, may It enter in tonight and bless you with such Power that never again will you know anything but the poised, masterful control of all conditions by this Cosmic Flame of Love that transcends every human concept and now gives you all that is within the Light in Its Heart. May you BE this Light from this hour henceforth and the Love around you be so great so in the morning there will be no more problems or limitations or struggle, but just the joy of expanding the Powers of that Cosmic Love each day, until They have reached everywhere and raised all into Perfection.

May the Great Cosmic Flame which the Seven Mighty Elohim of Creation direct flood over America tonight in Its Mighty Cosmic Expansion! May Its Pressure intensify and compel the dissolving and consuming of all that is less than the Perfection of Its own Heart! May every Being Who directs the Sacred Fire intensify the Cosmic Expansion of that Unfed Flame of a Thousand Suns throughout the Three Americas tonight and wrap that Unfed Flame as a Mantle, an Armor of the Sacred Fire about the physical body and Life Stream of those under this Radiation, the Beloved Donald and the Younger Generation and those in the National Defense of the Three Americas, until the Sacred Fire stands between them and everything on the Planet that is not the Light, until the hour of their Ascension.

May the Seven Mighty Kumaras hear My Call tonight and intensify and expand that Unfed Flame with the Love at Their Command until every particle of Life feels It and is forever set free.

In the fullness of all the Love I know how to pour, I shall stand and watch and try to assist you until the fullness of that Life is the Open Door into the Activities with which you are concerned when you are out of the body; until the Door is opened for each one of you and you have full Conscious Knowledge of what you do, and you bring It back into the waking consciousness. Until this is opened for you, I will stand and watch and hold your hands and do what I can to help you until that Illumination shows you the fullness of your Powers and your Freedom forever.

May the Mighty Healing Powers of the Cosmic Flame of Cosmic Love that transcends every human concept and the Cosmic Expansion of the Unfed Flame of a Thousand Suns enter in everywhere, intensify and expand until all are held within the Heart of the Sacred Fire and all else has become Its Perfection tonight. I make the Call tonight, that now may be the moment of manifestation for all.

Thank you so much.

REMINDER!
