

Gems of Light

When you go to bed at night, before you go to sleep, command all the energy of your Life you use the next day to be charged with the Ascended Masters' Invincible Happiness and Victory and Success, and everything in your being and world is the Victory-Sun of the Divine Plan fulfilled! Just give the Decree and remember to live in Our Heart Realm of Life.

At night say: "Beloved Mighty I AM Presence" seal me in Your Heart Flame while my body rests tonight, and make me Your Heart Realm, so I live, move and have my being and do everything in your Heart Realm tomorrow! Do the same thing in the morning. Close every Decree with all you are and have: I DEMAND this Decree and its fulfilled manifestations are kept Invincible against all evil for all Eternity! This protects each day's energy. This protects the manifestations you want and for which you are decreeing. This is part of the Prevention Flame. If you will do this, It becomes a Repelling Force. It is more than that—It becomes a Flame around you that goes into conditions you contact and consumes their evil. It has a two-fold Action. It not only protects the good in manifestation, but It repels, purifies, and annihilates all evil wherever you go. Then you do not take on conditions from other people, or from outer world activities in which you must move.

Now Radiation has three times more energy in it than the spoken word. That is why, when you move among conditions of the outer world that are disturbing, if you do not take your stand by Conscious Command and demand that you, and everything in and around you, be kept Invincible against all evil, if you are not insulated by your Command, then you are going to be one with the discord of the outer world.
