BELOVED SAINT GERMAIN'S TALK TO THE GROUP LEADERS

NEW YORK CITY, NY
APRIL 22, 1939

Now this is the thing, My Beloved Group Leaders, you are bound to meet. If you have not met it, you are bound to meet it because you cannot escape. You are going to meet people who are filled with doubt and all the foolish stuff that has been spread throughout America and the world. You cannot help meeting some of it, and if you are not strong enough and instantly dynamic and determined enough to shatter that thing the moment it is drawn to your attention, it will just weave itself right in and you, through self-justification will make yourselves believe you are justified in your feelings of discord. Do you not see that, My Dear Ones?

That is why recently I have caused the Messengers to say or repeatedly call the Students' attention to the danger of self-pity and self-justification. It is a dangerous thing because I think perhaps it is more subtle than almost anything, unless it is a certain form of jealousy. But these things are just qualities acting, but people do make it so personal many times—but after all, My Dear Ones, it is really not a personal thing. It is a force acting; and if the individual that is feeling that thing does not stop it, how in the world are you ever going to clear your world of it? Do you not see it? I tell you, My Dear Ones, it is not a personal thing. It is a charged, qualified force that happens to be acting through an individual or group of individuals—of discord. Do you not see that, My Dear Ones?

So tonight, with this opportunity, I am so very grateful for our Blessed Ada for having arranged for this to come about; for it is magnificent. You know, sometimes I cannot even suggest things, but when I find those who are prompted to do things I have longed to do—you will never know, My Dear Ones, how I have longed to get this number of Group Leaders together and talk to them, because you are the ones who must stand, who must gather the Light and release Its Power.
