Beloved Ones of My Heart, if you will remain very still for a few moments and accept the Outpouring of the Blessing from the Lord the Maha Chohan, He is ready to give you again the Flame of Illumination. . . . The Flame that descends is the Golden, Illuminating Flame that, entering into the brain structure and the mental and feeling world, brings the Ease and the Relaxation and the Peace that enables you, with much greater Power, to receive from your “Mighty I AM Presence” and Higher Mental Body the next expanding Consciousness, as Its Wave passes through you all in Its Raising Activity to give you more Power to hold your Freedom and produce your Victory in this world. For just a moment, feel this deep within the Heart—and also within the brain structure—just the soft, Golden Flame, the outer Radiance of Pink. (silence) . . .

What the Lord the Maha Chohan brings you as Illumination, none can ever take from you ever in all Eternity. That much greater Light from His great Life Stream is anchored within you forever as the Power that draws you up until you become like Him. This is His Day; and I am, may I say, but the Herald of His Coming. He is the one doing the Work with you today, and I but announce that which prepares you to enable Him to help you with greater Love. Just feel deep within yourselves the great Light and the greater Powers of the Sacred Fire which are His Illuminating Presence and Gift to you all. . . . So just with all your being today, love Him and just thank Him for everything He means to the people of this world and all the boundless Gifts
