

Beloved Saint Germain

I want to sound a warning tonight: Do not allow the outer world to consume you. Do you know what I mean? I say to you, you must take your Freedom if you are going to have It; for the world will never give It to you. I'm speaking of the human creation of the outer world which day by day makes you think that everything is more important than releasing the Perfection of your "Presence" into yourselves to hold the outer world in its right place. . . .

Precious Hearts, "I AM" endeavoring to set you Free! I want you Free, and I hope you want to be Free as much as I have loved you through the centuries. (applause—audience rising) Thank you, Precious Ones. Won't you be seated, please, and just remain so. Now when you meet conditions of the outer world that demand your attention incessantly, periodically, I hope, you will do this—and I mean several times a day. When you begin to feel the pull of the outer world until it makes you weary, if you will go by yourself for just one half minute and turn back to your "Mighty I AM Presence," and placing your head within Its Heart and reaching up and putting your arms around that "Blessed I AM Presence," demand that It enfold you and that Its Hand sweeps into the outer world condition and forces it to give you your Freedom.
