

GEMS OF LIGHT

COLOR OF THE DAY

AUGUST 16, 1964 • MRS. G.W. BALLARD

There have been many requests made recently about why we use a certain color on a certain day. If I may explain for just a few moments the Inner Action of these qualities and what the Ascended Ones can do when we all conform to that same color on the same day, it will give the Ascended Ones an opportunity to strengthen certain qualities within us that will not only bless us, but will release greater Power for us to use in outer world conditions.

Now we have two days that are the white day. That is Sunday and Thursday. The white represents the Expansion of the Light from the “Beloved Mighty I AM Presence” and the Higher Mental Body through the outer self; so we start with that on Sunday.

Monday, we follow the sequence of colors in the chart; Monday is the gold. The gold represents the Purity and the Peace of that Supreme Love from the Heart Flame of the Great Central Sun.

The next is the pink, which is the Love, Forgiveness, and Mercy to life as It pours forth Its soothing power to purify, heal, and harmonize people.

Then we have the blue on Wednesday, as its natural color, but very often we have Violet Flame Classes on Wednesday. Now when you're using Power, if you combine with that the Violet Consuming Flame Purifying Love, then that Power never becomes too much of a pressure on anyone's emotional body. It's a Balancing Force. The blue is your Pure Electronic Force—It's strength, It's energy, It's actual condensation of Electronic Force from the Great Central Sun.

Then Thursday we have white again. By that time after we've had these three days of other colors, again the Higher Mental Body can release the greater Expansion of more Light through the outer self.

When we use the green, that is the power of Nature and is the supply channel. Gold also represents supply, but It is the Supply that Love alone can give. The green represents the Blessings through the Powers of Nature which come under the Direction of the Lord the Maha Chohan.

Then Saturday is our Violet Flame day, again releasing the Purifying Power of the Violet Consuming Flame's Love, Forgiveness, and Mercy to Life. Then again we enter into the white on Sunday.

Now from the Inner standpoint, if there is a group of people who will conform to this, so that is the only color that the individuals wear within the room during that Class or day, the Great Ones establish at the Inner Level a Pulsation, a Focus of the Power of that particular quality, in and around the Sanctuary—wherever the Classes will conform to these regulations and wherever the individual gives recognition to this in the home. The Great Ones establish a Pulsation of that, a Concentration of the Power; and It releases periodically, just like your heartbeat, through the outer self, to strengthen those qualities in the outer self, in the feeling, so that you are able to hold more of a balance in outer world conditions wherever you abide. This strengthens every constructive quality within you.

Then the Ascended Host—if there is a Group who will harmonize and will do that, after the Class is through or while the Decrees are going forth and the Music or the reading, when that energy is finished or the Class is closed, the Great Ones take that up, and if it's all uniform and harmonious, They pour into it Their Sacred Fire. Then They can amplify It without any limit whatsoever and direct It throughout the nation or the city or the locality to produce that which is constructive to be the Protection of what is constructive to purify, to heal, and to build that which will be a Blessing to the Earth and to Life everywhere.

Beloved Saint Germain once told us, in explaining this to us, He said, until We take it and pour the Violet Flame into it—He says the Radiation, as it comes forth, is a substance and is as delicate as a gossamer veil. But if it is harmonious and is held until the Class is through, it forms a complete Pattern of its own, and usually a Sun Presence. Then, He said, We take that release of your own life energy qualified with those vibratory frequencies, and then We pour into that the Sacred Fire from the Ascended Masters' Octave. That becomes a Sun of Living Flame; and We can direct It at various points—either in the city or the Nation or the world—to render any special service that We know is needed most.
