MRS. G.W. BALLARD

SHRINE AUDITORIUM, 1941

Did you ever get chewing gum in your hair when you were a youngster—have your big sister scold you for it? Then sometimes you'd go off on the q.t. and cut it out and then you did get it in real earnest when you came back! Well, these things are all just an accumulation of that same bunch of nonsense. We have the Power to break these things now, Precious Ones! If you will stand with me, we'll give these Decrees. And keep on those Decrees to pay your bills and annihilate all debts and all obligations—that weight or pressure of lack in the feeling world of the people of our Land. The reason I am pleading for you to gain your momentum on this now is because I know something is coming in the months just ahead; and if you don't build your momentum, if you don't wake up and put pressure enough on it now, you're going to sit outside with the rest of them with not enough to live on. And that's not necessary when these Great Ones are ready to give you all.

They're not going to come from the Heart of the Great Silence and just dump oodles of everything in your lap and carry you through on a golden platter of luxury into your Ascension just because you said, "I want my Ascension," and you say a few nice, little, comfortable Decrees. "Well! I made my Call to my 'Presence'! I don't understand why these things don't break!" Oh, I hear it by the tons. I don't care if you're the most peaceful individual on the face of the Earth. It's a lot easier for me to sit still and be peaceful than it is to get up here and remain positive enough to keep cracking the shell of human creation. My Dear People, these little, gentle darlings who won't put any energy back of it won't have any money either. (laughter) There isn't energy enough left for the "Presence" and the Ascended Ones to even see a faint little radiance around you as you exist among the mass of mankind. They don't even know where you are to bring it to you. If They had it waiting for you this minute and you don't send up enough Radiance with enough Intensity in your feeling, there isn't Light enough for Them to know where you are.
